

AMUSEMENTS.

THE HON. WILLIAM D. KELLEY, M. C., will lecture to-morrow (Thursday) evening, at the National Hall, Market street, above Twelfth, before the Social, Civil, and Statistical Association of the Colored People of this city. Judge Kelley's subject will be the "Thirty-ninth Congress." The celebrated Black Swan will sing at the opening and closing of the lecture.

NEW CANTON STREET THEATRE.—Miss Helen Western appears in the French Spy and Green Bushes. In these two plays the lady will sustain five characters, assisted by every member of the stock company.

A matinee will be given on Saturday, at which an attractive bill will be offered. AT THE ARCH, Ours continues its very successful career. It can only be played this and to-morrow evening of the present week.

On Friday night, Mr. Frank Mordant's benefit. On Saturday evening, Mr. B. H. Craig will have his annual benefit.

WALNUT STREET THEATRE.—This establishment is still crowded nightly by the admirers of Miss Lucille Western, who will continue to present Mr. Taylor's version of Best Lyone until further notice.

AT THE AMERICAN THEATRE "The Royal Mail" "The Troupe" and forty every night, Miss Carrie Austin, the wonderful "Zauber," Mad'le Louise, the famous drummer-boy girl; and the South American Brothers appear every evening this week on Saturday afternoon at the Academy of Music. All of the usual tricks will be performed, with the addition of the "Blistering Aerial Wonder" and the "Equipoise with four Leaders." The female members of the troupe will also execute some neat feats of jugglery at every entertainment.

CAROLINE & DIXIE present, every evening this week, in addition to their usual olio, their real "Black Japonica Troupe," in feats of balancing, juggling, and other feats of the like. The farce of Virginia Mummy is very funny, and Harry Lehr is excellent as "Ginger Blue."

CONCERT HALL.—The grand Consolidated Troupe of Bell-Ringers are having unequalled success. The soloists are all excellent, and the "Female Silver Handbell" are really wonderful. Performances will be given by the troupe every night, and family matinees have been arranged for Wednesday and Saturday afternoons.

ASSEMBLY BUILDINGS.—The beautiful panorama of Ireland is exhibited every evening, enlivened with songs, lectures, and recitations. The life views of Erin's romantic scenery are well executed, and are deserving of a visit.

Government Reform Bill in England. Mr. Disraeli's compilation of the numerical results of his proposed enfranchisement is as follows:—

Table with columns: Boroughs, Counties, Electors, etc. Total electors: 10,000,000. Total value of property: £1,000,000,000.

Old Meanings of the Word "Jolly." Philological students in England have discovered that the slang sense in which the word jolly is used by fast young ladies and their "men" is not slang. They point out that in a serious theological work published two centuries back—John Trapp's Commentary on the Old and New Testament, London, 1856-7—is to be read, "All was jolly quiet at Ephesus before St. Paul came thither." "A century earlier," says Mr. J. D. Shaw, in "Notes and Queries," "North, in his translation of Plutarch's Lives, uses the word thus, 'It (the wind which some call caecias) bloweth a jolly cool wind.'"

In the following from South, "He catches at an apple of Sodom, which though it may entertain his eye with a fiery, jolly white and red, yet, etc., etc., the term is used adjectively (vide Johnson). In the Taming of the Shrew (act iii, scene 2), "Katherine" says to "Petruccio":—" 'Tis like you'll prove a jolly surly groom."
